4. The Oscars. Always one of the most important events in the production business, the 1967 Academy Awards featured a second victory for Elizabeth Taylor, but not for her co-star "Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf?" Richard Burton. His fellow Britisher, Paul Scofield, won for "A Man for All Seasons," which was also named the best picture.

5. Networks into films. The entrance of CBS and ABC into production of feature movies for theaters was considered by many observers to be the most important industry trend of 1967. The long established film
