

THE GREAT Southeast Music Hall and the Atlanta Jazz Forum are collaborating on a jazz concert and jam session to be held today from 4 to 8 p.m. in the music hall. The program will feature Atlanta artists.

A spokesman said the Jazz Forum, a nonprofit group, hopes to turn the concert into an annual event.

On Monday, the music hall will have a Halloween and fifth anniversary show headlined by Thermos Greenwood, the satirical group. Comedian Steve Smith and Cruisematics are also on the program. Cruisematics, an offshoot of the Darryl Rhoades ensemble, specializes in 1950s and '60s rock.

Folk singer Steve Goodman is due at the music hall Tuesday. The hall will close Wednesday, but will reopen Thursday with a "Writer's Night" concert featuring Tracy Nelson, Townes van Zandt, Linda Hargrove and Lee Clayton.
