Friday

HELPING HAND — M.O.M.O. Productions presents John Ford Noonan's "Some Men Need Help" at 8 tonight at the Leuden Nelson Center. This comedy-drama records the touching, humorous and sometimes violent relationship between a young executive in a losing battle with alcoholism and his Mafioso neighbor bent on seeing him rehabilitated. Arnon Stover and Gerru Gerlinger star in the play, which ran successfully off-Broadway in 1983. It continues through the weekend and again Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays through March 23. This presentation marks its premiere in the Monterey Bay Area. For information or reservations call 429-3504.

TOO COOL — The Cool Jerks present a big eight-piece motown and R&B review at O.T. Price's Music Hall at 8 tonight. Vocalist Richie Begin heads the Jerks, who continue to be one of this area's most popular dance bands. For more information call 476-3939.

LET'S GET SMALL — Singer/songwriter Fred Small performs his "Songs for a Changing World" in the Santa Cruz High School Auditorium tonight. Small is a topical songwriter in the tradition of Woody Guthrie and Malvina Reynolds. After earning degrees in law and natural resources from Yale and the University of Michigan, Small decided to pursue his musical career full time. He records on the Rounder label. The show, presented by the Resource Center for Nonviolence, starts at 8 p.m. For more information call 423-1626.

RIO GRANDE — The R Rio Trio, featuring Nat Johnson on bass, Joe Indence on piano, and R Rio on chromatic harmonica, brings its mix of jazz standards to Max, 1314 Ocean St., Friday and Saturday nights in February. Johnson is a 20-year veteran of the San Francisco scene. Indence is a highly respected Santa Cruz favorite, and Rio is one of the few jazz harmonica players around. For more information call 423-8000.

GAIL WINDS — Jazz vocalist Gail Dobson plays the Kuumbwa Jazz Center at 8 tonight backed by a four-member band. Her combo features

Bill Redman on guitar, Nat Johnson on bass, Jeff Ballard on drums and Tim Jackson on flute and sax. Her son Little Smith Dobson, makes a special guest appearance on drums. For more information call 429-8590.

TOLL CALL — The Call, the pride of Santa Cruz, pays a visit to its old stomping grounds at the Catalyst at 9:30 tonight. Now recording on the Electra/Asylum label, the Call has gotten critical brownie points all
