

Van Zandt's next album brings him back to his family's home state. Tomato Records has asked Van Zandt to re-record an anthology of 60 songs for a set of three compact discs, accompanied by a 100-page story of his life written by Bill Hedgepath.

Recording began last week at San Marcos' Fire Station Studio under the production of Steve Mendell.