'Norman' ends run

"Where would I go?" points Gordon (played by Lawrence Tobby) as Norman (played by Vana Helms) who just suggested that his impetuous lover should depart during the visit of his square-jawed father. They're in the gay comedy "Norman, Is That You?" which is next at the Upscale Showtimes are tomorrow and Saturday at 8:30 p.m. and at a Saturday matinee at 4:30 p.m.

Mostly quiet on Miami front -- except for Van Zandt

Special to The Miami News

The next few weeks promise to be quiet ones for local rock music fans — only one concert is scheduled in the next two weeks.

MIAMI promoter Lesa Campbell has decided to take off the next two weeks and will not present his usual weekend shows at the Miami Jai-Alai Fronton. However, Howard Stein has booked three acts for a Sept. 15 show at the Hollywood Sportatorium. The three acts: popular English group Yes, The Eagles and Egg Over Easy mark Stein's kickoff for the Fall rock entertainment season.

OTHER NEWS ... Torres Van Zandt continues at the Flick through this Sunday. Following him, will be Tim Buckley.

HITS AND PIECES ... Martin Mull, having just completed a new album, reportedly preparing to make his television debut, possibly joining Laugh-In.

ROCK music

A new single by Arthur Conley is rapidly climbing the soul charts. ... Jonathan Edwards' latest album is "Honky-Tonk Studious Cowboy" on the ATCO label. Tampa's White Witch has a new single, "Don't Close Your Mind," a cut off the album "White Witch".

WKAT radio adds three new shows

Three new personalities will kick off WKAT's fall schedule beginning next Wednesday. General Manager Sidney Levin has announced:

George Singer will host "Hook, Line and Singer" Monday through Friday from 1 to 4 p.m. The show will focus on women under 40 and their problems.

Roby Yonge leaves rock station WQVQ to host "The Light Show" Monday through Saturday from 10 p.m. to 1 a.m. Yonge is no stranger to Miami rock fans, having been a deejay here for several years in the mid-60's.

The third newcomer is April Johnson, who will present the "April Johnson Show" 10-11 a.m. Monday through Friday.

Radio personality Alfred will move to a 6-10 a.m. time slot Monday through Saturday.

According to program director Bill Smith, WKAT is shifting emphasis from what might have been "an over-emphasis on discussion of tropical issues" to more entertainment.
